Foreword: Why This Document Exists

Consumers searching for Lunar Astro reviews deserve to know what happens before they pick up the phone for a consultation they paid ₹8,000+ for. This document exposes the internal psychological sales script that anonymous "panel astrologers" (e.g., "Code 5007") are trained to follow.

Every step of the Lunar Astro consultation is engineered not to give you spiritual guidance, but to keep you financially dependent on the system. By understanding the script, you can recognize it — and protect yourself.

The 5-Step Proxy Astrologer Sales Script

Step 1: The Hook — "You Have a Serious Problem"

The consultation begins not with a greeting, but with a manufactured crisis. The proxy astrologer (a recent student, not the master) is trained to immediately identify a "severe" planetary affliction in the client's chart.

Common script phrases:

- "I can see a very heavy Saturn/Rahu combination in your chart. This is causing all your problems."
- "You have a serious Karmic Blockage from a past life. This is why nothing is working for you."
- "Your 8th house is severely afflicted. This is a dangerous period."

The Psychology: This is a classic "Cold Reading" technique. By using vague but fear-inducing language (Saturn, Rahu, 8th house, Karma), the astrologer triggers anxiety. The client, already vulnerable, begins to believe the astrologer has identified their core problem.

Step 2: The Fear — "Link the Blockage to Your Trauma"

Once the hook is set, the proxy astrologer is trained to connect the manufactured planetary crisis to the client's real-world pain points. This is extracted from the booking form the client filled in before the call.

Common script phrases:

- "This Saturn period is directly responsible for your career stagnation / marriage delay / health issues."
- "Your child's developmental issues are linked to a Mercury affliction. This is why conventional medicine isn't fully working."
- "Your business losses are because of a Pitru Dosha (ancestral curse) that has been active for 7 years."

The Psychology: By connecting a cosmic "cause" to a real personal tragedy, the astrologer creates an emotional anchor. The client now feels that astrology has "explained" their suffering, making them highly receptive to the "solution" that follows.

Step 3: The Up-Sell — "The Remedy Will Fix Everything"

This is the core revenue engine. The proxy astrologer now introduces the "solution" — a remedy, a gemstone, a course, or an expensive follow-up consultation.

Common script phrases:

- "You need to perform a specific Shanti Puja for Saturn. I can guide you through this, but it requires a specialized consultation package."
- "Wearing a Blue Sapphire (Neelam) of at least 5 carats will protect you. We have certified gemstones available."
- "To fully understand your chart, you should enroll in our Predictive Astrology Course. Only then will you have the knowledge to protect yourself."
- "We offer a follow-up 'Karma Clearing' session for ₹5,000 that specifically addresses this blockage."

The Psychology: The client is now in a state of fear and hope simultaneously. The "remedy" is presented as the only logical next step. The price point (₹5,000 to ₹15,000+) feels small compared to the magnitude of the "crisis" that has just been described to them.

Step 4: The Escape Hatch — "You Did It Wrong"

When a client returns to complain that the remedy did not work, the proxy astrologer (or customer support) deploys the "Escape Hatch."

Common script phrases:

- "Did you perform the remedy on the exact day and time I specified? Even a small deviation can negate the effect."
- "The gemstone needs to be energized (Prana Pratishtha) by a qualified Brahmin. Did you do that?"
- "Your situation was more complex than we initially assessed. You need a deeper 'Root Cause' consultation."

The Psychology: This technique shifts all responsibility to the client. It is structurally impossible for the remedy to "fail" — any failure is always the client's fault. This protects Lunar Astro from refund demands and creates a new sales opportunity for a follow-up consultation.

Step 5: The Trap — The “No-Dispute” Legal Cage

If the client refuses to accept the “Escape Hatch” and demands a refund or initiates a bank chargeback, Lunar Astro deploys its final weapon: the coercive legal contract.

The Mechanism:

- The Terms of Service state that connecting a phone call = a “successful consultation.”
- The client agreed (in the fine print) not to dispute the charge.
- Lunar Astro submits these terms to the payment gateway to block the chargeback.

The Result: The client’s money is permanently trapped. They cannot get it back through the bank, and filing a consumer complaint requires months of legal effort that most victims cannot sustain.

Conclusion: The Illusion Shattered

Deepanshu Giri built a powerful “guru” brand on YouTube and social media. But the consultations are delivered by anonymous students reading from this psychological script. Every fear you feel during a Lunar Astro consultation is manufactured. Every remedy is an up-sell. Every “I told you so” about a failed remedy is a trap.

If you recognize this script from your own consultation, you were not speaking to a spiritual guide. You were speaking to a trained salesperson.

Take immediate action:

1. File a chargeback with your bank under “Service Not As Described.”
2. File a complaint with the National Consumer Helpline (NCH): 1800-11-4000.
3. Report the medical claims to the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare.
